National French Week / La semaine du français Student Meme contest/ Le concours de mèmes

Memes are quick and humorous way to draw value to cultural ideas, symbols, or practices. Enter our student meme contest as part of the National French Week festivities! Students in grades 6 - 12 are encouraged to work on entries and submit them for a chance at prizes!

Theme: Briser les barrières en français! Breaking barriers in French!

Deadline: November 15th, 2020

Competition Guidelines: The meme must illustrate and describe a positive, and theme aligned message.

- Memes can be in English, French, or both.
- Any meme generator or tech tool can be used (Google Drawings, Meme Dad, etc).
- Memes with references to sex, alcohol, drugs or violence will not be accepted.
- French teacher of student(s) must be an AATF member.
- There is a limit of five entries per school. Students can work in groups.

Competition Divisions: (1) Intermediate: Grades 6 - 8, (2) Secondary: Grades 9 - 12

Judging Criteria: Visual impact, relevance to theme, and originality.

Technology Considerations: Students may use any meme creation or editing websites to construct their submissions.

Submission Info: To submit contest entries, please email them to us at aatfnfw@gmail.com . Entries must include the name of the school, the French teacher, division, and the student(s) who contributed to the project.

All memes become the property of the AATF and may be used in AATF publications or materials.

Prizes: The winning memes will be posted on the AATF website. First, second, and third place winners of each division will receive prizes and certificates.
