

National French Week / La semaine du français Student Meme Contest / Le concours de mèmes

Looking for a fun and creative fall project for your students or your French Club? Want your students to explore new technologies and share their excitement about French with parents and community members? Wishing your students could articulate why language learning and cultural competence are valuable? If so, be sure to make the Student Meme Contest a part of your National French Week festivities! Entries aren't due until November 15, 2018, so encourage students to start work on their memes and submit them for their chance at prizes! Please review the entry guidelines below for more details.

Theme: Un moment dans la vie d'un(e) élève de français (a moment in the life of a French student)

Deadline: Memes must be received by November 15, 2018

Guidelines:

- The meme must illustrate and describe a positive, funny moment experienced by a French learner.
- Memes can be in English, French, or both.
- Any meme generator or tech tool can be used (Google Drawings, Meme Dad, etc).
- Memes with references to sex, alcohol, drugs or violence will not be accepted.
- French teacher of student(s) must be an AATF member.
- There is a limit of five entries per school.

Competition divisions: (1) Intermediate: Grades 6 – 8, (2) Secondary: Grades 9 – 12

Judging Criteria: Visual impact, relevance to the theme, originality.

Technology Considerations: Students may use any meme creation or editing websites to construct their submissions.

Submission Information: To submit contest entries, please email them to us at aatfnfw@gmail.com . You can also upload them to your Google Drive and then share the files with us using our email address.

After making your memes available to us, please send us an email that includes the names of the school, the French teacher, division, and the students who contributed to the project.

All memes become the property of the AATF and may be used in AATF publications or materials.

Prizes: All participants in the meme competition will receive certificates. The winning memes will be posted on the AATF website. First, second, and third place winners of each division will receive prizes.
